SHOW YOUR COLOURS

The charity LIBERATE is hoping to show the world that the Channel Islands believe in equality for all, no matter what your race, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, belief, age or disability, by asking all Channel Islands businesses, schools, government offices, places of worship, clubs and associations to take part in the first Rainbow Mufti Day.

We are asking you to show your support for equality and diversity by flying the rainbow flag and/or allowing your employees, pupils and members to dress in bright, colourful clothing on 27 November 2014.

So, go on, show your colours on
Rainbow Mufti Day
27 November 2014
